Greetings Colleagues!

You are cordially invited to the annual Washington State Association of Student Employment Administrators (WSASEA) Spring Conference on May 21-23, 2012 at Rainbow Lodge in North Bend, WA. Early bird registration is now open at a cost of $230 (rising to $250 after April 30th), this price covers the full cost of the three-day conference, including meals, lodging, 2012-13 WSASEA membership dues, and as a reminder you can use FWS JLD funds to attend this conference! After April 30th, the total is still only $250, still a great value! The HECB is generously sponsoring Conference attendance for new Work Study administrators, so if you know of anyone who could benefit be sure to let them know about this great opportunity!

Our Keynote Speaker is Ken Sauby, Administrator from the DSHS Sunnyside CSO, presenting "Finding the Treasures of Crucial Conversations."

Some session highlights:

- Washington State HECB Update with Jeffrey Powell and our wonderful HECB Staff!
- Federal Update from Suzanne Scheldt, training officer with the U.S. Department of Education!
- Candy Banker from DSHS will answer your questions and talk about Workfirst and Work-study!
- Violet Boyer, President & CEO of the Independent Colleges of Washington!
- I-9 and Social Security Update with Lynda Buehring & Tim Beard!
- SWS Assessment, Strategy, & Legislative Response
- Job Location and Development
- WSASEA Round Table discussions! A forum to discuss best practices and issues with colleagues who can relate to you!

Register now at <http://www.wsasea.org> and reserve your spot for only $230 - This Early Bird rate is only available if you register and pay by April 30th! For your convenience WSASEA now offers an easy online registration payment, just use the link on the registration page. You can even go paperless by sending your registration by email and paying the conference fee online!

You can view details and the agenda on the WSASEA website, and please don't hesitate to email me or any of your executive board members if you have questions. I look forward to seeing you there!
